

SUPPORTING PARA DRESSAGE

At this USET Foundation Benefit hosted by Margaret Duprey and Cherry Knoll Farm, Becky Reno, and Annie Peavy, attendees were the first to watch the new film from director Ron Davis which documents the inspiring journey of four U.S. para dressage athletes, David Botana, Sydney Collier, Rebecca Hart, and Roxanne Trunnell, as they aim to make the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic Team.

USET Foundation Executive Director Bonnie Jenkins and 'ParaGold' director Ron Davis

U.S. Para Dressage Chef d'Equipe Michel Assouline and the youngest classified para equestrian Grade IV rider Genevieve Rohner

Grade I Paralympian Hope Hand and Grade II para dressage athlete Veronica Gogan

Roxanne Trunnell, individual Paralympic gold medalist and team bronze Paralympic medalist with Karin Flint, the owner of Trunnell's Paralympic mount, Dolton

Event sponsor and Grade IV para dressage athlete Annie Peavy, Katie Robicheaux, and Olivia English

Advance Screening of ParaGold

A documentary from the director of "Harry & Snowman" and "Life in the Doghouse"

SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 2022

A USET Foundation Benefit for the U.S. Para Dressage Team

'ParaGold' director Ron Davis with two of the film's subjects, Grade I athlete and 2016 Paralympian Sydney Collier and Grade I athlete and two-time Paralympian Roxanne Trunnell

Grade II Paralympian Beatrice de Lavalette, Lexi Rohner, and Grade V para dressage rider Alex Henry