

Pony Club Member Receives Para-Equestrian Dressage Fund Grant

USPC The Dressage Foundation (TDF) recently announced the recipients of two $1,000 grants from its Para-Equestrian Dressage Fund. This Fund was established in 2018 to provide financial support for para-riders to attend educational events.

One of the recipients is Pony Club member and para-equestrian Genevieve Rohner (Pioneer Pony Club – Intermountain Region). She is a member of the USEF Emerging Athlete Program and plans to use the grant funding to train with Para-Dressage Olympian Kate Shoemaker in Florida over the winter. Genevieve and horse Donut recently achieved the USDF Year-End Para Grade IV Reserve Champion. Genevieve said, "This grant is special because I am going to my first CPEDI in March in Wellington. I have dreamed about it for so long, and it's finally here. The Dressage Foundation is helping make it happen!" Click here to read the full story and learn more about The Dressage Foundation.

Photo by Deborah Hickey